PROFILE

Media artist with a Master's diploma in New Technologies for the Arts (110/110) from the Accademia Albertina, Turin. My research is about colour, from its psychology in cinema to how algorithms read it. I design and build interactive installations, web apps and visual content, combining graphic design, code and AI.

- Interactive installation on "chromatic over-interpretation": a webcam detects the dominant colours (k-means) and a local AI (Ollama) assigns the visitor moods it cannot possibly know.
- Teaching app designed in Figma, built in HTML, CSS and JavaScript and published on GitHub Pages.
- Deck of 25 cards recognised by the installation, and a printed thesis with colour compositions CHROMA can read.
